The squadron reached the rendezvous on Murch 20 1th Yoshimo and Nanle examined the approaches to the Islands, but the storms delayed operations until March 23, when we bombarded the northwest forts. They used guas of fifteen centimeters, but our ships were not tonched. Fo-day we landed a force of marines and some guns and captured the northern and western batteries, the guns of the warships supporting the shore party. We are now proceeding to make an attack upon Makong and tomorrow intend to attack II Ching Ko. There were no casualties or accidents to the ability are troops. Armenian Outrages.
LONDON, March 29. A deputation of the Anglo-Saxon Association called upon the Earl of Kimberly to-day and urged that action betaken by the government dealing thoroughly with the matter of the Armenian outrages, and expressed the hope that such action would not be put off longer by Turkish promises and delays. Lord Kimberly expressed the despess sympathy with the cause advocated by the deputation, but said he would not employ stronger language, because of his official position. The government, he said, would give every attention to the reforms which should be made in Armenia.

HOUSE OF RANING is considered and acknowledged to be a necessity. The nature of man is opposed to filth. It, however, the clemning of the house is necessary to health, how much more necessary to health, should we consider it to keep the Temple of God—the human body—free from the maint of impurity. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is like the thritty house-wife, going through every nook and corner, sewething out the accumulated flith, purifying the system and restoring perfect health.

It's the only blood purifier, liver and lung favigorator, so save and certain in its curative action that is can be sold through dealers, on trial, being gumanized to care or money returned.
